Will the Minister of NEW AND RENEWABLE ENERGY be pleased to state:

(a) the States in which the Government has implemented production based incentive scheme for the companies engaged in the development of wind energy;

(b) whether the Government is contemplating to implement these schemes in Maharashtra also; and

(c) if so, the details thereof?

Answer

THE MINISTER OF STATE FOR POWER, COAL & NEW AND RENEWABLE ENERGY (INDEPENDENT CHARGE) (SHRI PIYUSH GOYAL)

(a): The production based incentive scheme in wind power namely "Generation Based Incentive (GBI)" is implemented in the entire country and is not specific for any particular state. The developers of all windy states in the country have availed the scheme. The state-wise details are given in Annexure.
(b): The GBI scheme has already been implemented in the State of Maharashtra and at present is also open for developers in Maharashtra.
(c): A total of 114 wind power projects having capacity of 1658.7 MW have been implemented in Maharashtra under GBI scheme.
